

ART WORK

By Nino Papanishvili

Author's Note

Nino Papanishvili is a native of Gori, Georgia but for the past eight years she has been a transplanted New Yorker. When she is not writing compelling narrative poetry about her beloved New York City, she has taken to the art of Ikebana, Japanese flower arranging. She was perhaps inspired by the fact that the facility where she worked had a beautiful garden, which offered material for her designs.